NO APPOINTMENT TO COMMISSIONERSHIP YET

County Committee Recommends Rowan Saufley—Judge Hardin Says He Will Call A New Deal

Interest in the race for Master Commissioner of the Lincoln Circuit Court continued at fever heat Monday, and much speculation was indulged in as to who will receive the appointment.

A meeting of the Lincoln county Democratic Committee was called by Chairman George L. Penny for Monday, and seven of the 12 members of the committee signed a recommendation of Rowan Saufley for the place. The other five were in favor of H. J. McRoberts or of not interfering with the right of Judge Hardin to appoint whomever he chose, so they snail.

Judge Hardin came over from Danville in the afternoon, and accepted the action of the committee as a recommendation, which he said had been his purpose from the first in having committee action. It developed however that Rowan Saufley and his friends had understood him to tell them that he would appoint the man the committee recommended, but Judge Hardin stated that such had not been his intention.

Considerable feeling seems to have been engendered over the matter, and just before he left for Harrodsburg, Judge Hardin stated that he would appoint the man he pleased, without influence of any kind, and that matters had come to a point in the campaign for the office, that he intended to wipe the slate off and begin a new deal. It was suggested about town that as a result of the point to which the fight for the place had come that Judge Hardin might select some outsider who was not an applicant for the office, as a compromise and thus prevent any further feeling on the part of any of the candidates. The friends of Mr. Saufley were very insistent that since he secured the committee endorsement he should have the appointment. The friends of Mr. McRoberts are not saying much but are "sitting steady in the boat."

The recommendation, signed by seven members of the committee in favor of Rowan Saufley, was as follows:

To Hon. Chas. A. Hardin, Judge L. C. H. We the undersigned members of the Democratic Executive Committee of Lincoln County hereby recommend the appointment of H. J. McRoberts to the office of Master Commissioner of the Lincoln Circuit Court upon the grounds of fidelity to the Democratic party, service to said party and regularity in all actions. We trust that you can see your way clear to make this appointment. Respectfully submitted:

NEWLAND-EADS

Popular Young Couple Are Quietly Wedded Monday Afternoon.

One of the most popular young couples of Lincoln county, Miss Kate Newland and Mr. Alfred Eads, surprised their many friends by quietly repairing to the Baptist parsonage late Monday afternoon, where they were united in marriage by Rev. J. H. Jones. Immediately afterward they left via auto for Harrodsburg and other points for a short trip, after which they will return here to make their home.

Mr. Eads is one of the best known young farmers of Lincoln county being a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Eads. He stands high with everyone and has the confidence and esteem of all. He is to be most heartily congratulated upon winning such a charming home. His bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Newland, and is one of the most attractive young girls in Lincoln county, being as beautiful in mind and heart as she is lovely in face and figure. She is an accomplished musician, and is undoubtedly one of the most popular girls in the community.

The wedding was in no wise a run-away affair, but it was desired to make it a simple and quiet event. Their host of friends will tender sincere congratulations and best wishes for all the happiness in the world.

Value of Cheerfulness.
Cheerfulness is a thing to be more profoundly grateful for than all that genius ever inspired or talent accomplished. Next best to spontaneous cheerfulness is deliberate, intended and persistent cheerfulness which we can create, cultivate and so foster and cherish that after a few years the world will never suspect that it was not a hereditary gift.—Helen Hunt Jackson

BECKHAM'S TRIUMPH

Former Governor At Head Of Party Again, Says Richardson

Under the heading "Governor Beckham's Personal and Political Triumph," Editor Jim Richardson, in his excellent Democratic paper, the Glasgow Times in last week's issue pays a high compliment to the ability and leadership of Governor J. C. W. Beckham as the master hand and mind that united the dominant factions of the Democratic party in Kentucky, and by his superb generalship returned the Bluegrass State to the Democratic Column effectually crushing the Republican party, and made possible the election of the State ticket headed by Hon. James B. McCreary. Col. Richardson's article which is an able one, follows:

"Viewed from any standpoint the recent Democratic victory was a great personal and political triumph for ex-Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, with a swiftness and thoroughness that was dramatic, it marked his return to leadership just when the forces of evil were on the point of celebrating his demise, confident that the temporary thwarting of his ambitions would drive him into the obscurity of private life, he seized the helm of his party and steered the old ship of Democracy over dangerous shoals and reefs and through treacherous seas into a safe harbor. His success was possible. With one master stroke he united the two dominant factions in the State and having thus healed the dissension that formerly ended in defeat, he brought about a unity and harmony and inspired the rank and file and wrecked the enemy before their numbers and enthusiasm."

"The return of Gov. Beckham to power is a silencing rebuke to his foes, and a proper reward for the wrongs he has suffered at the hands of that characterless combination which robbed the Democracy of a seat in the United States Senate, brought disgrace upon the State, his betrayal left no bitterness in his heart. He felt secure in the affection and confidence of that vast body of Democrats that are never reached by the contamination of the lobby. They resent the effort made by these corrupting influences to humiliate and destroy him, and at the first opportunity they gave expression to their trust in him and their condemnation of his enemies by again placing the scepter of party authority in his hands, with the assurance that under his honest fearless leadership Kentucky would remain true to the faith of the fathers. The political history of this country records no higher personal tribute to any man."

"Gov. Beckham has proven himself worthy in every way of the love his people bear him, when a corrupt lobby set aside the veil of the Democracy expressed at the polls, he made no bitter complaint, but with noble forbearance, and a patient surpassing understanding, bided his time, referring the whole controversy back to the voters. He has not waited in vain. The wisdom of his course has been confirmed, the party which has honored him so signally in the past gave overwhelming proof of its devotion now. It is content to follow where he leads, having an abiding faith in his patriotism, his judgment and his selflessness."

"We congratulate the Democracy upon this act of justice toward one of its ablest and most deserving members. Kentucky needs the direct whose pride in the State will outweigh all personal aims and party necessities. We are entering upon an era of development and progress that will call for the service of real leaders. Let us extend a hearty welcome to one who has already left the impression of his character and ability upon the Commonwealth."

Shugars, of Stanford, and four daughters, Mrs. Jonas Rucker, of Richmond, Misses Lillian, Margaret and Bessie Shugars, of this place survive him. A younger son, O. W. LIFE SENTENCE FOR YOUNG WALTER CARSON

Hustonsville Rural Route Carrier Is Convicted at Liberty of Murder, But Will Appeal.

Walter Carson, the young Hustonsville rural route carrier, who shot and killed a farmer named George Cochran over in Casey county while delivering his mail one day last summer, was given a life sentence in the penitentiary by a jury in the Circuit court at Liberty late Saturday. The whole week had been consumed with the trial of this case, and it attracted much attention by reason of the prominence of the young man charged with the crime, and the circumstances attending it.

It is said that the case will be immediately appealed to the Court of Appeals on a number of alleged errors and because of the refusal of the lower court to grant a change of venue to another county, where he feeling would not be so strong against Carson, his victim having been a Casey county man.

Attorneys Rollin Hurt, of Columbia, George Stone of Danville, and Robert Harding, of Danville, who defended Carson, are said to have made a very strong case in his behalf, but the prosecution also fought the case vigorously, being assisted by Attorney W. J. Price, of Danville.

12 CENTS A POUND

Paid By Kincaid For Tobacco He Says Is Mighty Fine.

What W. P. Kincaid says is the finest crop of tobacco he has seen in years, was sold by W. D. Williams and Jordan Middleton to him last week. It was of splendid color and the silkiest of texture and Mr. Kincaid paid them 12 cents a pound for it, which is the high water mark for tobacco around these parts this year and is a figure that is going to be reached very seldom this fall. There were 10,000 pounds of the weed, and it was very uniform throughout. Lincoln county can raise as good or better tobacco than any county in the state if the growers will only take pains with their crops and that what these two gentlemen did who have sold their product at what is going to be a mighty fancy price this year.

Soft Water for Jock Tea.

"New York water is too hard to make good tea," said the English matron. "The use of soft water is one secret of tea making that New York people seem never to have learned. Before we found that we could buy soft water bottled we softened the water for making tea with 'inch of soda.'"

RETIRED GEORGIA PLANTER ADVISES TO KIDNEY SUFFERERS

Regarding the wonderful curative merits of your Swamp-Root, I cannot say too much. After suffering severely for three years or more with severe pain caused by weak kidneys, I was finally induced to try Swamp-Root through a testimonial I read in one of the newspapers. I was in such a condition that I was obliged to arise from my bed six or eight times every night. I purchased a fifty cent bottle and before it was used I felt so much relief that I purchased a one-dollar bottle and by the time this was taken the old pains had left my back and I could sleep the whole night through. I am a retired planter, 70 years of age, and owing to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, I am in the best of health and feel like a boy. I am always glad to recommend Swamp-Root to those who are in need of it. Sincerely yours,

C. E. USSERY.

Personally appeared before me, this 8th of September, 1909, C. E. USSERY, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE TO GRAND MASTER JACKSON

Masons Gather Around Banquet Board At London To Do Honor To State Leader

One of the most beautiful tributes of love and respect ever paid any man by his home people was the reception and banquet given at London, November 13, by the Masonic Lodge in honor of Hon. David Jackson who is the present Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, Free and Accepted Masons.

At half past five o'clock the lodge parlor began to fill, and when the doors of the banquet hall were opened, about one hundred and fifty

Grand Master David Jackson.

Masons and their lady friends were seated for a banquet feast, the like of which is seldom seen, even in Kentucky.

Music and cut flowers, beautiful women and a seemingly inexhaustible supply of good things to eat were the means of entertainment presented to the craft, who were there both from the mountains and the Blue Grass.

It was a tribute by his home people of which any man should be proud, and it was an evidence of love and respect that but few men have the good fortune to be tendered.

The substantial feast concluded John W. Brown, of Mt. Vernon, as the toastmaster announced that the best end of the evening's entertainment was still in store, and he proceeded at once to unloose it in a most captivating speech abounding in good humor and keen satire, that cuts deep but leaves no scar.

He introduced eleven speakers, each of whom in short, catchy speeches kept the good humor of the company in happiest vein. One of the speakers gave a bit of personal history as reason for his great devotion to the Masonic institution. He said that during the Civil war he was in the mountains of Kentucky as a military spy for the Union army. After he had gone to bed he heard an alarm of his door and upon opening, found confronting him an officer of the Confederate army, who told him that his purpose in that region was known to the commanding Confederate officer, and at day light he would be arrested as a spy.

"But," said his Confederate visitor, "I have sat with you in a Masonic lodge. You have not gotten the information you came in search of and now come, go with me; I will show you the means of safe escape."

"And," said the banquet speaker, "at high noon of next day, the sun which lighted the deep passes of the Cumberland Mountains looked down upon the hasty forms of 16 Union spies dangling from the trees of the mountain side, and had I not been a Free Mason, myself, would have been the seventeenth victim at that hanging, instead of a speaker at this banquet."

It was a unique revival of aptly remembered experience—which aptly represented the strength of the Masonic ties.

The closing speech was of course made by the Grand Master, the guest of honor.

He declared his devotion to the order in no uncertain terms and his affection for the men of his own lodge he expressed in a feeling way. The lodge of Stanford was represented by a number of Masons and contributed one of the speakers of the evening.

It is the universal sentiment of those who attended that the boasted cooks of the Blue Grass have equal competitors in the ladies of the mountain section.

AGED GERMAN FARMER COMMITS SUICIDE

Hangs Himself In Bedroom At His Home Near Ottenheim—Had Said He Wanted to Die

Chris Ficke, an aged German living a mile from Carter's Store, on the Ottenheim pike, committed suicide early Monday morning by hanging himself from a wooden stool in his room. His wife had been out of the room but a few minutes when he committed the deed, for when she went back to their bedroom to call him for breakfast, he was dead.

Ficke had fastened a long and heavy cord to the wooden stool and put his head through a slip, nose on the other end, strangling himself to death.

The evening before while sitting and chattering with a young man named Arnold, who lives near, he had expressed the wish that he might die, on account of his old age and infirmities, but Arnold did not take the matter seriously. Mr. Ficke was 80 years of age, and was born in Germany. He came to this country a number of years ago and had engaged in farming in the Ottenheim section since then. He is survived by his wife and several grown children.

Coroner George P. Bright went out and held an inquest. He empaneled a jury of six German citizens of the community, for whom young Arnold acted as interpreter. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts.

His wife passed over the river about 16 years ago, and he is survived by four children—Joseph Phelps, Demp Phelps, both of this county, Mrs. Kate Hamilton, and Mrs. Hilda Cox, both of Casey. FATHER MAKES SON TELL WHERE HE GOT BOOZE

And Judge Menefee Fines Ed Satter $75 For Selling Him A Quart. —Satter Appeals.

Walter Killian a young man of Rowland, came to town Saturday night and procuring a quart of old booze, proceeded to celebrate the approaching Christmas season. When he appeared before Police Judge John N. Menefee, Jr., Monday he refused to tell where he had bought the liquor, and Judge Menefee politely informed him that he had a way to make him tell. Walter swore that he would rot in jail a thousand years before he told, but the Judge sent for his father, and after the latter had used a big whip with telling effect at the proper place for a few minutes, Walter decided to tell where he had secured the booze. He said that he had bought it from Ed Satter, a well known local negro.

Judge Menefee then had Satter arrested and upon Killian's testimony fined him $75 and costs. Satter appealed the case to Judge Bailey's court and the further trial had not been held when the I. J. went to press.

COLLIER'S ON TAFT.

So far as we can remember, Collier's Weekly has been radically wrong on but one great public question. That was its treatment of the Culter Powers case, when its special correspondent, sent to Kentucky to investigate and write it up, spent nearly all of his time getting the facts from Powers himself in his cell at the Georgetown jail. We were working on a Frankfort paper at the time, and know the facts.

As we said, this has been the only position taken by this great publication, which we have not fully endorsed. We want to commend now most emphatically what it says about President Taft. Practically all democrats will endorse it, and we know a great many republicans who do too. Listen to what it says in its current issue:

Incredible!

"President Taft's endorsement of Boss Cox's ticket is the final horror. To support it at all (on the argency and assurance of a Cox politician) was terrible enough, but to support it against so fitting and courageous a candidate as Hunt-really, words fail, and we are driven to punctuation and italics.

"What is the President coming to?
After such an exhibition can he be even nominated? If there were an election tomorrow, would not Woodrow Wilson carry Ohio against him overwhelmingly? We have been patient with Mr. Taft. The Payne-Aldridge tariff, the Ballinger iniquities, the use of patronage against in-surgers, the wool veto, the retention of Secretary Wilson and So-lietor McCabe, the turning of the Post-Office Department into still more rigid political machine, the ruin of our relations with South America—in spite of blow after blow we have clung to the hope that the President would improve sufficiently to have a general balance of usefulness to his country. For sheer imbecile lack of backbone this last outrage is the worst."

Collier's will rejoice along with all others who stand for decency and better things, that the good people of Cincinnati completely repudiated Taft and Boss Cox by electing Hunt
my a splendid majority.

Right here we want to deny the intimation in Collier's of a week or so ago, that most of the State Central Committees of the interior states are against Woodrow Wilson for the democratic nomination for president. It may be that some of the ardent congressional friends of Speaker Champ Clark will seek to influence their committeemen in favor of the Missouri statesman, but we firmly are of the opinion that Kentucky's Committee, if left to setle the question itself, would be found solidly behind the New Jersey governor.

The tenor of the country press of this state is overwhelmingly for Wilson; the great mass of Kentuckians are for him; and by this we do not mean the democrats alone, for he will undoubtedly draw tremendous strength from the progressive republicans of Kentucky. If we have a presidential primary—and we should have one—you may county Kentucky in the Woodrow Wilson column. But whether a primary not, we do not believe there will be a chance to take Kentucky away from him.

The Harrodsburg Herald chronicles the act that on the morning after election J. M. Farnsworth, a Mercer county farmer, saw a half-grown chicken catch and eat a mouse.
Considering the example set the day before when a small sized game rooster wiped up the earth with the
e. o. p. elephant, such an exhibition

PARKSVILLE.
We sincerely regret to state that Dr. W. A. Brown tells us he is not improving any.

Mr. John A. Hollon, who suffered the second partial stroke of paralysis two weeks since, is not so well at this writing.

Mrs. William Saylor, who had somewhat improved from a severe attack of typhoid fever, has suffered a relapse and is not expected to recover.

Miss Mue Cozatt is not improving as rapidly as her relatives and friends expected. It is now almost seven weeks, since she was taken ill. She continues to have some fever each day.

The protracted services that were conducted by Rev. John B. Jones, of Stanford and Rev. H. M. Shouse, of this county, at the Clens Chapel Baptist church, closed Wednesday evening. There were not only added to the church, but Rev. Jones delivered some powerful sermons. The attendance was good. The church strengthened, and the ingathering is expected later.

It was a great shock to the relatives and friends of Mr. Charles Adams, when the message came Wednesday afternoon, announcing his death. Deceased had only two years ago bought the farm of Mr. Avery East of Shelbyville and was improving it rapidly, and apparently almost ready for him and his family to enjoy the comforts of a good home. Only a few days since was stricken with pneumonia. Although strong physically, this dreaded disease conquered all, and the life of this good man was brought to a sudden end. He was a devout member of the Baptist church. Honorable and upright in every transaction. He was a brother of two of our neighbors and friends, Messrs. A. J. and Jay Adams, also of Mr. H. R. Adams, of Junction City, and survived by a noble wife, and three dutiful children, whose grief was heart rending. The funeral service was conducted by Elder John B. Jones, at the cemetery in this place Thursday afternoon, in the presence of a large crowd of sorrowing relatives and friends. The writer joins the many friends in extending sympathy to all bereaved and stricken ones.

It was reported Tuesday on pretty good authority, that the L. & N. R. R. Co. had bought of Mr. R. S. Martin, of Brookland, the building formerly used by him as a tobacco factory. This house is located just across the tracks from the present freight depot and if the report is true would be an excellent location for a passenger depot, some thing Junction City is in dire need of.

THE FARMERS

We have a buyer for a farm of about 100 acres well improved and on pike. If you have anything near this, list it with us. Hughes & McCarty, Stanford.

For Sale.—25 two year old mules James Messer, 88 ft.

For Sale.—A nice little farm, consisting of 10 acres. William Porter.

Powell, & Depp, of the West End bought of S. P. Stephenson last week 14 young cattle @ 4 1/2 cents.

For Sale.—Nice little farm of 10 acres good house, good barn, fine orchard, eastern at door, stock water all necessary outbuilding will sell cheap. Also bank stock. W. M. Porter, Stanford, Ky., 91-2tp.

J. B. Hubble the prominent Buena Vista, stock man bought a pair of mules at Danville Monday for $250.

Myers & Tucker, of the West End, bought of various parties last week 50 hogs at 5 to 5 1-2 cents a pound.

James Yowell, of Hustonville, delivered to J. C. Caldwell, of Boyle county, 125 1,000 to 1,200 pound cattle, for which he received $5.35.

T. W. Jones & Co. shipped three loads of hogs and one of sheep to Cincinnati last week.

J. H. Baughman left Friday for Atlanta, Ga., where he will handle Kentucky horses and mules again this winter. Henry Baughman, of Hustonville, left Sunday to join him and will be his assistant. Mr. Baughman has great success last winter in this business and made quite a reputation among the cotton growers of the south for furnishing them splendid animals. He is not so sanguine of the mule market in Atlanta this winter for cotton has gone down and the growers will not be willing to pay such high prices for mules as heretofore. This is affecting the mule market here to some extent.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Neut, of Richmond, have purchased the Brutus J. Clay place, just outside the city limits of that city, price $26,000. This is one of the most modern, convenient and handsome residences in Central Kentucky. The farm contains about 750 acres, and joins the present property of Mr. and Mrs. Neut. The residence alone cost the original owner $35,000. It is of brick and stone three stories and has every modern convenience.

Capt. T. D. English reports the sale of George Clayton, near Hurlin, as one of the best of the season. The farm, containing 104 acres, purchased two years ago by Mr. Clayton for $97, was sold to W. H. Squires, of Bourbon county, at $137 an acre. Forty head of thoroughbred Berkshire hogs and gilts sold at from $25 to $140 a head. Buyers from three different states were on hand.

The number of exhibitors for the annual Horse Show, which opened in New York last week shows that as an adjunct to society, at least the horse still holds his own. Nearly 2,000 animals will be shown by 312 exhibitors. The number breaks all records since the exhibition was established 27 years ago. The cash prizes with the gold and silver trophies offered in the 154 classes are valued at $40,000.

J. L. Benzley sold to George D. Boone last week 35 nice hogs at 4 1-2 cents.

B. D. Holtzelaw shipped about 70 hogs and 15 cattle to the Cincinnati markets last week. He is always in the market for anything on foot.

J. C. Eubanks sold last week to James Meredith, of Salvisa, Mercer county, an even dozen 700-pound cattle at 4 1-2 cents a pound.

R. C. Arnold, who is always in the market for live stock of almost any character, last week bought 24 fat 100-pound shoats from Nevir Carter at 4 1-2 cents. He got a cow and calf from Mr. Sumas, the well-known German farmer for $45 and a cow and heifer from J. J. Rigney for $50.

Joe Bales shipped 23 car loads of export cattle from the Danville depot to New York last week. The entire shipment was purchased from Jere Caldwell at $6.75.—Danville Advocate.

Lillard & Fox sold 79 head of ship cattle to Roger Lillard, of Anderson county last week at $4.50. They will be shipped this winter to the Cedar Brook distillery.—Danville Advocate.

The high winds of the past few days have played havoc with corn shocks all over the county, and have kept many hands at work straightening them up.

The Danville Tobacco Warehouse which handles a lot of Lincoln county tobacco, announces in the 1. J. today that it will have its first sale on Dec. 4. Mr. H. C. Bright is at the head of this hustling house and always sees that particular attention is paid out of town growers, when they bring in their crops.

J. Nevil Carter and W. O. Walker are preparing to send a couple of splendid young show horses over to Billy Shropshire at Winchester to train for several months this winter. Mr. Carter will send over his handsome young chestnut stallion Kentucky Gentleman by Chester Pentive out of a Red Squirrel mare. This youngster is but two years old but has already attracted much attention by his style and splendid conformation. Mr. Carter will stand him here next season. Mr. Walker will send over his handsome young stallion, High Cloud, which is already well known to local breeders. He made a fine reputation here last season, and will undoubtedly be quite a favorite next year.

Col. J. P. Chandler, the famous auctioneer, cried the sale of R. L. Porter at his farm on the Lancaster pike Tuesday morning. Cows sold from $56 to $24; hogs at $6.70 and 100-pound shoats at $4.40. Household and kitchen furniture and farming implements sold well.

Remember Mrs. Liz Melvin's sale Wednesday at 10 o'clock near the Ephesus church.

Lost.—A pale red cow weighing between 850 and 900 pounds. Had small bell on; sit in left ear and V. C. brand on left hip. Please return to Owsley McWhorter, Kidd's store, Ky. 89-tp.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets do not sicken or gripe, and may be taken with perfect safety by the most delicate women of the youngest child. The old and feeble will also find them a most suitable remedy for aiding and strengthening their weakened digestion and for regulating the bowels. For sale by all dealers.

The dark tobacco pool in the Green river section of Western Kentucky disposed of its entire holdings about 29,000,000 pounds, for the sum of $2,500,000. The American Tobacco Company got most of the crop. The sale includes every stick of pooled tobacco in the Green river territory, and was made by each of the organizations for prices ranging from $10 to $6, $10 for leaf and lugs and $3 for trash for the best grade, and $6 for leaf and lugs and $3 for trash for the lowest grade. This is what would have been the result had the pool become finally established up in this, the burley district.
